Here's one of our ELX Experiences...

What's one of the hardest parts of being in a new country? Getting a job!

A perfect moment to dive in the deep end and prepare for.

- » Practising for an interview. We'll film it live! We will ask you questions so you can prepare yourself.
- » After the interview is finished, we will review the tape together. This is the perfect way to identify where you want to improve and the areas where you are already great.
- » Finally, we'll repeat the process over the course of a few weeks. You'll see your own confidence skyrocket and witness your own progress.

Confidence is like a muscle.
The more you practice, the stronger you get!

Vibrant Nightlife • Beautiful Beaches

Besides being consistently ranked as the most liveable city in the world, Melbourne is also Australia's style capital and is home to some of the best food, dining, bars, and live music in the world. It is one of Australia's top destinations for international students and is a truly multicultural city.

Melbourne is a welcoming, outgoing, and confident city in terms of its people's generosity and inclusiveness. This spirit embraces change while honouring heritage; celebrates diversity while sharing a common sense of place and pride; and aspires to a prosperous, lively and peaceful future.

It is not uncommon for Melbournians to surprise new arrivals with their authenticity and the freedom they have in the city when it comes to hairstyles or looks, interests or hobbies, work or friends. Melbourne's free and open nature allows people to be themselves and find places where they are accepted and welcome.

Would you like to find the true version of yourself and a place in the world?

Housing Support

Melbourne and regional Victoria offer high quality, safe student accommodation from the cosmopolitan inner city living to leafy garden suburbs and beautiful regional centres. We offer housing placement support upon request if you want to speak English at your Australian home and improve your English faster while living with native speakers or with international friends. The types of accommodation in Australia are:

Temporary Accommodation: We encourage you to book temporary accommodation (Hotels, Motels & Backpackers) for a few days to settle into your new surroundings, search and move to suitable permanent accommodation. The price varies from $90 to $150 per week depending on its quality.

Student Accommodation: Student accommodation is located near the campus and include shared facilities, so you also have the benefits of living in a community. You won't have to worry about furniture and utility bills, living to your own schedule. Costs vary and you can expect to pay from $110 to $280 a week including utilities and sometimes internet and cleaning services.

Rental Accommodation: Renting a home means you choose the location, people, and furniture. You are also responsible for arranging and paying for utilities. You can expect to pay from $95 to $215 per week, depending on how many people you share with and where you live.

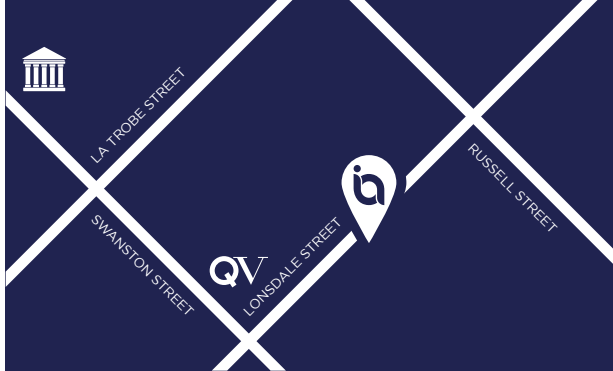

Living With A Family: When an international student lives with a family in their home it's called a homestay. A homestay gives you a family support network ready to introduce you to Australian society. Homestay costs from $235 to $325 per week depending on facilities, location and the number of meals the family provides.

Cost of Living in Melbourne

This table shows the monthly estimated costs of services and goods in Australia that you are likely to need. The cost of living in Melbourne is significantly cheaper than in Sydney, mostly due to the cost of housing.

Per Week	AUD$
Accommodation	$90 – $500
Utilities for a small apartment (Electricity, heating, water)	$40 – $60
Regular public transport pass	$30 – $60
Phone & Internet	$15 – $30
Gym Membership	$15 – $40
Groceries & Meals	$140 – $280
Per Item
Meal at a Restaurant	$14.50 – $25
Coffee (Melbournians love coffee!)	$1 – $5
Beer	$6 – $10
